

THINGS TO PLAN BEFORE STARTING A COMPOSITION

1. Choose the medium for subject. This will determine type of surface, and color of paper
(If necessary.)
2. Size to be done
- 3.- 4. Eye level and light angle
5. Composition of group: close-up or long overview
6. Technique to use: loose, tight, dramatic, wet-in-wet.
7. Color/ value scale:
    bright/warm- or dull
    light to dark
8. Bleed or vignette
9. Then proceed with planning, using basic shapes, thinking of perspective ,
    And considering general layout/
