

Marjorie Jones Scholarship Crewel Embroidery Class EGA National or Regional Seminar

The Marjorie Jones Scholarship will be awarded to benefit students of crewel embroidery. The scholarship will provide registration, nonrefundable and kit fees for one two-day crewel class or two two-day crewel class students or one four-day crewel student at an EGA National or Regional Seminar.

Applications must be postmarked on or before April 1.

Within 6 months of the completion of the class, the Marjorie Jones Scholarship recipient is to create a Petite Project or write an article for Needle Arts or write a report to the Director of Education or EGA President.

If the project is not completed by the designated completion date, the recipient may apply to the Scholarship Committee, using the EGA headquarters email or mailing address, for an extension. If an extension is not granted, the money is to be returned within 10 days.

This scholarship is not transferable to any other person, nor may it be used for any purpose or seminar other than the next EGA National Seminar or EGA Region Seminar that occurs after application is submitted.

The Marjorie Jones Scholarship is part of the Designated Scholarship Fund established by the EGA Board of Directors in January 2006 to act as a repository for donations made to award specifically designated scholarships. The scholarship will be awarded annually until less than $300 is available. Any remaining funds will be transferred to the Legacy Scholarship Fund.

Any EGA member may apply without regard to gender, race, religion, national or ethnic origin.

Applications are reviewed by the EGA Scholarship Committee in a blind process.

The Committee reserves the right to withhold scholarships in any given year if there are no appropriate applications.

A single individual may submit only one application per scholarship. A single individual may be awarded only one EGA Scholarship per year.
