Friday Night

The Seven Ways of Color Contrast -- a Zoom Lecture with Laura Smith

Understanding and utilizing color contrast is crucial to the success of embroidered designs. Using over 70 photos of luscious embroideries and scenic gardens, this talk examines seven forms of color contrast. The goal is to boost your understanding and enjoyment of color while improving your ability to make color choices. An added bonus is that the visual stimulation will motivate you to stitch!

The lecture is relevant for anyone who is interested in the EGA Master Craftsman in Color or Design and for anyone who struggles with color choices.

REGION MEETING: 10:00 – 11:30 AM

The Carolinas Region Board of Directors (BoD) meeting will be held via Zoom on Saturday, May 22, 2021, starting promptly at 10 AM. Saturday, 1:00 – 4:00 PM

Sit and Stitch

Join us for a good old-fashioned stitch-in! Bring your current projects and your stories. We will also have time to see your “show and tell” items so bring those, as well. We will have 3 hours to spend together so you can show us as many of your quarantine projects as you can pile on your table!

We also suggest that you have paper and pencil handy, as during these stitch-ins we always hear about resources, sources, websites, and other tidbits that we want to write down.

OR
